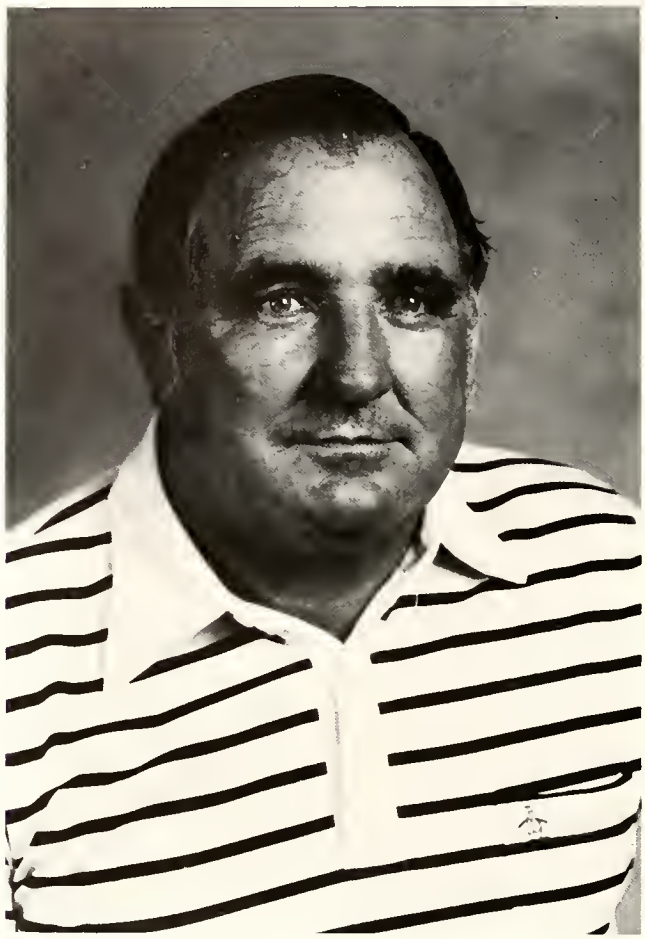
Dedication

We, the Class of 1980, dedicate this year's Tigerette Annual to Coach Paul B. Schuelke for his outstanding devotion to students of Glen Rose High School as individuals as well as teams.



Coach Schuelke came to Glen Rose from Archer City in July 1958 as an assistant coach. In 1962, he became Athletic Director head football coach, and girls' basketball, volleyball, and track coach. He served in this capacity until the 79-80 school year.

While coaching in Glen Rose, he has entered teams in state play-offs in five different major sports — football, basketball, volleyball, baseball, and track.

While coaching football, he has had three district championship teams (1966, 1972, 1978). He has had a total of 88 wins, 76 losses, and 8 ties.

While coaching basketball, he has had district champs nine times and bi-district champs eight times, state qualifiers three times (1963, 3rd in state; 1968, 3rd in state, and 1971, 2nd in state). He has had a total of 480 wins and 192 losses.

We will always cherish our memories of Coach Schuelke.

Class of 1980
Senior Trip

Durango and Purgatory
Colorado

BALLARD OF THE GOLDEN ARCHES

O, we were stranded in Durango, Colorado,
With a bunch of sunburned Seniors in their prime.
They were filled with glee and laughter and bravado,
With the thought of broken bottoms on their minds.

They thought a Big Mac would be the final touch,
But soon everyone smelled that old burning clutch.
As the group munched fries and drank frosty cokes,
They relived their three days on the Colorado slopes.

Roy just couldn't wait to try out a little slope,
But those hotel people put an end to all his hopes.
So many skiers turned out blue and black,
But nerve to get up and try again they didn't lack.

Kenny had a cake, turned brighter red and was eighteen,
But found "legal" in Colorado, that doesn't really mean.
Out to those wicked ski slopes there went old Danny Knight;
He and that tree, man, they really had themselves a fight.

O, we were stranded in Durango, Colorado,
With a bunch of sunburned Seniors in their prime.
They were filled with glee and laughter and bravado,
With the thought of broken bottoms on their minds.

At every shop and stop Coach Hart bought a shirt or two,
And poor old Brad kept losing something that wasn't blue.
Sabra and David got crossed up in a chair lift,
And for a first, it seemed to be David who got miffed.

O, those Glen Rose boys got caught up in a fishnet,
And to that neat Jacuzzi, their tired legs owed a debt.
Everyone showed surprise at seeing a copper Kojak;
His swim attire was unusual — And that's a fact!

Then on the last night (it was sometime 'round eleven);
Those Seniors didn't know "what was cookin'" in 837.
But when the tine for that surprise party approached,
That sleepy, grumpy Bobby yelled and cussed out the Coach.

So it was pack-up time even before we knew it,
And on that bus we had to repack those skiis to fit.
We settled in the bus, hating to leave so much,
But wheeling on down the road, Clarence lost that clutch.

They had staged the first Annual Glen Rose Downhill,
And with a whole big bunch of T-shirts, the bus they'd filled.
But that "convenience" on the bus was filled up to the rim;
And, as everyone agreed, it wasn't filled with Brim.

O, we were stranded in Durango, Colorado,
With a bunch of sunburned Seniors in thier prime.
They were filled with glee and laughter and bravado,
With the thought of broken bottoms on their minds.

Regretful relief passes through the bodies of the Tigerette staff as the last pages of the 1980 annual are boxed for delivery to the Taylor Publishing Company. The exhausting task of producing this annual has entailed many requirements from each staff member — responsibility, dependability, punctuality and patience. It has truly been a learning experience for all. Fortunately, for any yearbook staff, there are those outside people who are willing to give of their services, too. The following people deserve a tremendous amount of appreciation:

Mrs. Patricia West, our sponsor
Mr. David Calvert, Taylor Representative
Mr. John Robertson, "delivery man"
Mr. Mike McCleskey and associates, school photographers
Mrs. Kay Talley, photographer
Mr. Jeff Bise, photographer
The Ed Russell Family, Good Times Ranch facilities
Miss Lex Ann Haughey, Most Handsome judge
Mr. Walt Garrison, Most Beautiful judge
Susan Bybee, art work and writing
Mrs. Freda Whitworth and Miss Peggy Oldham, Library research
Mr. Joe Douglas, carpentry
The faculty and administration of Glen Rose
. . . and all other community members to have supported the 1980 Tigerette Staff!

THANK YOU!!!

Respectfully,

Kristi Wise
